The Silver Spoon Experience

Filed Under: Schwag Report

The Silver Spoon Hollywood Buffet was the first of the Oscar gifting suites we hit on Friday, and it was by far the best! founder Melissa Lemer has built quite an impressive brand, in just a little over three years.

The most-coveted of all "schwagfests", has the best brands and the most of all of them. Plus, Lemer and her girls package the freebie phenom as a true "experience."

Held at the Max Factor building, just steps from the Kodack Theater, the theme of this year's buffet was Old Hollywood, and we felt quite glamorous when Miz Lemer appointed a VIP Host to escort Perez around the Buffet. Sooooo rad!

We ran into Shannen Doherty as we arrived, and we also spotted Drew Lachey and his very pregnant wife, who caused quite a little sensation everywhere they went. Amazing what a little TV show can do for ya!

And, it's still so astonishing to us what a little ol' blog can do for us.

Here is the loot we went home with on Friday:

- Travertine botanical body wash

- a very sexy Goorin hat
- Elizabeth Grant skincare sampler
- Borghese moisturizer-
- Crest Whitestrips, which we swear by!
- Xtreme Lashes mascara

And, for all the taking that celebs and lucky insiders did, they also gave back, donating a $20 entrance fee in the name for the Alzheimer's Foundation.
