Paul Mitchell - Size does matter, and now you can get the volume you want and keep it all day long with the new Paul Mitchell Extra-Body Firm Finishing Spray.

Celebrities and VIPs could not stop raving about the bags:

"I was recently at the Reality Cares Presents Event and received a gift bag. My girlfriend and I go to tons of events in Los Angeles where we receive gift bags at the end of the night. However, we were so impressed with our gift bags from this event. We received so many amazing items such as make-up that we will use, fashion accessories, hair care products, candles and CDs from an amazing artist to name a few. My girlfriend left the event with a new pair of stylish boots. It made her night! These bags were well thought out and extremely gratifying! Great bags!" (message received via email from excited giftbag recipient.)
